Welcome to the FIRST quarter of the Anthropology Honors Program. The main goal of this course sequence is for you to produce original anthropological scholarship that contributes new ideas and perspectives to the field.

To that end, by the end of this course you will be able to:

- Conceptualize a research project;
- Review the literature in a particular area of the field;
- Evaluate ethical considerations in anthropological research.

ABOUT THE HONORS PROGRAM

The Anthropology Honors Program offers an opportunity for outstanding students to pursue advanced, independent research and to earn Honors in Anthropology upon graduation. The program is open to all Anthropology majors with a grade point average of 3.3 or higher overall, with 3.5 in Anthropology courses. Applications to the Honors Program are due in February of a student’s junior year. More information and copies of the application are available on the department website at https://www.anthropology.uci.edu/undergrad/honors.php#honors

GRADING

This course is focused on guiding you through the research process, and I encourage you to be open to experimenting, risk taking, and discovery. You will receive frequent feedback from the instructor, your peers, and your thesis advisor.

All assignments in this course will be graded on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis. To achieve a satisfactory grade, assignments must:

- Be completed on time;
- Meet all specified requirements (including class activities & peer reviews).

Your final grade in the class will be determined by the instructor and through your own self-assessment.

RESOURCES

All required materials will be posted on the course Canvas site. The following resources are RECOMMENDED for further reference:

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1) In-Class Activities (15%)

This course will be conducted as a seminar workshop, and your attendance and active engagement are essential. A series of in-class exercises will give you an opportunity to practice various analytical techniques.

2) Memos (60%)

The main goal of this course is for you to design and prepare for your honors thesis research. A series of memo assignments will guide you through this process. These are listed in the calendar below and on the course Canvas page.

3) Peer Review (15%)

This class will include extensive peer review and discussion of each students’ work. You are expected to engage in a close reading of your colleagues’ work and to offer detailed, thoughtful feedback. You can expect to also receive such feedback from your colleagues.

4) Self-Assessment and Reflection Letter (10%)

This final assignment asks you to reflect on the work you have accomplished so far in the Honors Program, to discuss your development as a researcher and critical thinker, and to assess your preparation for the next quarter.
ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Your Thesis Advisor

Participation in the Honors Program offers you the opportunity to work closely with an Anthropology faculty mentor. Your thesis advisor is the main person who will determine what constitutes a satisfactory research proposal and an adequate outline, and your final thesis must be approved by your advisor for you to graduate with Honors. You should plan to communicate with your advisor often about your research project and your progress in the program.

Library

The UCI Library is an excellent research resource and offers a helpful online guide to Anthropology scholarship.

Please note that you are not required to disclose private or medical information. If you need any accommodations because of the impact of a disability, please also contact the UCI Disability Services Center at 949-824-7494 or http://disability.uci.edu.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Learning, research, and scholarship depend upon an environment of academic integrity and honesty. This environment can be maintained only when all participants recognize the importance of upholding the highest ethical standards. Academic integrity is a requirement for passing this course and for graduating with Honors. All student work must be the work of the individual(s) receiving credit. Violations of academic integrity will be referred to the Office of Academic Integrity and Student Conduct and will receive no course credit. Please familiarize yourself with UCI’s Academic Integrity Policy (https://aisc.uci.edu/policies/academic-integrity/index.php) and speak to the Professor if you have any questions about what is and is not acceptable in this course.
