Academic Integrity

UCI faculty take seriously their obligation to ensure a learning environment that is based on academic honesty and integrity, and employ various methods to look for and find instances of plagiarism, copying, cheating, "purchased" work, etc. Each year, a number of students get into trouble for violating campus academic honesty rules. The consequences may include an "F" on the assignment(s), an "F" grade for the class, suspension for one or two quarters, or expulsion from the campus. Even a first-time offense may be grounds for suspension or expulsion from UCI, depending on the circumstances and findings.

In addition to familiarizing yourself with the academic integrity policy, be sure to read your course syllabi to understand your instructors’ expectations and rules regarding how to approach your assignments or projects. In some courses, collaboration is encouraged; in others, it is strictly prohibited. If you have questions, seek clarification from your instructors and TAs.

Academic Advising

ICS Undergraduate Student Affairs: If you have questions or concerns, are struggling academically, need help navigating through the university bureaucracy, or find yourself dealing with issues impacting your ability to stay focused, please do not hesitate to connect with an academic counselor; ucounsel@uci.edu and LiveChat.

Our office is currently closed to in person advising. However, you can make a virtual appointment with an academic counselor. Please visit this website and choose ICS Undergraduate Student Affairs from the drop down menu to schedule an academic advising appointment. If you have questions that need to be answered sooner than the available appointments, please either email us again at ucounsel@uci.edu or visit us via LiveChat.
Office of Access and Inclusion: Take advantage of the many services this office offers you, including mentoring, tutoring, professional development workshops, and more.

LARC: LARC offers tutoring sessions for a few ICS courses as well as Math 2ABD and Physics each quarter. I encourage you to sign up for them at the beginning of the quarter as they fill up quickly. There is a $100 cost associated with the tutoring course, but the 12-person capacity sessions will help you better understand the course material as the sessions are run by students who have mastered these topics successfully.

Connect with the Associate Dean: The Associate Dean for Student Affairs (ADSA), welcomes your feedback with respect to our academic programs, courses and student services. Feel free to contact by e-mail: adsa@ics.uci.edu.

Writing Center: As always, if you need any assistance with your written assignments please connect with the UCI Writing Center early and frequently.

Campus Assist List: This is a great place to access any campus resource you may need.
