International Peace and Conflict House

The IPACS House, sponsored by the Department of Global & International Studies, brings together students interested in international affairs, global politics and peace studies.

- Residents help plan and attend various activities such as faculty speakers, films, social gatherings, and community service
- Residents are also encouraged to attend on-campus activities such as the International Studies Public Forum (ISPF) and the Olive Tree Initiative events
- Living in the IPACS House provides a great opportunity for students to engage with a community of students, faculty, campus organizations and academics working on international issues
- Priority consideration will be given to International Studies majors and minors
