CAMP is excited to announce that we are now accepting applications for the Cynthia Brown STEM Scholarship (CBSS). Cynthia Brown is a strong supporter of the CAMP program. She raised her son as a single-parent and encouraged him to pursue higher education for a better life. Due mainly to her unyielding encouragement and support, her first-generation son attended college and ultimately graduated with a doctoral degree in a STEM discipline. The CBSS is designed to provide students from underrepresented minority populations in STEM, with additional resources to help them thrive in their degree programs. Students that are active in CAMP, and are Juniors or Seniors, are eligible to apply for the opportunity. Please note that you must have completed at least one quarter of research in order to be eligible for review. There is no minimum grade point average requirement to apply for the scholarship. The scholarship supports promising CAMP scholars with a $500.00 award.

The deadline to submit application is October 15, 2021. For more information regarding the California Alliance for Minority Participation (CAMP) Program, please visit our website at www.camp.uci.edu. If you have specific questions regarding the scholarship, please contact lsamp@uci.edu.
