Healthcare is a challenging, rapidly growing industry that employs one of every 10 working adults nationally and is responsible for more than 15 percent of annual employment growth in Texas. The Master of Science in Healthcare Leadership and Management degree program prepares industry leaders with a solid foundation in business analysis and decision-making, a thorough exposure to real-world healthcare management and rewarding professional development opportunities.

UT Dallas’ Naveen Jindal School of Management’s nationally recognized business faculty, together with a select group of highly experienced healthcare industry executives, prepare healthcare leadership and management MS graduates to assume increasingly responsible management and leadership roles in a wide range of healthcare settings.

Program Description
The MS in Healthcare Leadership and Management requires the completion of a minimum of 36 semester credit hours. For complete admission and degree requirements, view the Graduate Catalog at catalog.utdallas.edu.

Career Opportunities
Graduates of the program seek positions such as: management and leadership roles in a wide range of rapidly growing health-related organizations, including health and hospital systems, service-provider organizations, insurers and managed-care companies, consulting firms, pharmaceutical companies, public health organizations and medical device and biotechnology firms.

 Marketable Skills
Students of the MS in Healthcare Leadership and Management Program gain a comprehensive understanding of healthcare organization and delivery in the U.S. Upon successful completion of the degree program, graduates are prepared to be skilled decision-makers through comprehensive analysis of internal and external factors in healthcare environments. The marketable skills of the MS Healthcare Leadership and Management program include:

• Leading transformational change
• Understanding, analyzing and using data to improve performance
• Strategic Management
• Leveraging technology to improve performance and outcomes
• Analyze how laws, regulations, and policies control healthcare delivery

Naveen Jindal School of Management
About the School

The University of Texas at Dallas Naveen Jindal School of Management (JSOM) is the largest of UT Dallas’ eight schools, with an enrollment of about 9,000 with almost half who are graduate students. The school provides outstanding tuition value, a wide variety of classes on campus and online, flexible scheduling and a convenient location. The Jindal School of Management keeps abreast of business needs as an essential component in providing students with rigorous training and relevant skills for professional success. Programs are offered at the undergraduate, MBA, master’s, PhD and executive levels. Programs are organized around six broad topics of business specialization:

- Accounting
- Finance and Managerial Economics
- Information Systems
- Marketing
- Operations Management
- Organizations, Strategy and International Management

A broad array of internship and scholarship opportunities is made available to Jindal School students each academic year. The school operates its own Career Management Center, which students may use in addition to the campus-wide UT Dallas Career Center. More than 70 student organizations are based in the school. Most of these focus on career development in specific fields and build networking, internship and employment opportunities. U.S. News & World Report (2021) ranks the school’s Full-Time MBA program at No. 33 (tied) in the nation and tied for No. 12 (tied) among public university programs in the United States. In the same ranking, the publication places the Professional (Part-Time) MBA at No. 19 (tied) in the nation.
