The Master of Science in International Management Studies (MS IMS) degree program gives students knowledge and training in international management, which includes trade across national boundaries and management on a global basis. Students have the opportunity to learn, in depth, the fundamentals of:

- Functional areas of management.
- International business management.
- Cultural, sociopolitical and geographical constraints affecting business decisions.

Program Description

The MS in International Management Studies requires the completion of a minimum of 36 semester credit hours. For complete admission and degree requirements, view the Graduate Catalog at catalog.utdallas.edu.

There are six concentrations for students to choose from:
- Finance
- Human Resources/Organizational Behavior
- Information Management Technology
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Marketing
- Supply Chain Management

Along with concentrations, the MS in International Management Studies delivers hands-on opportunities by blending classroom lectures with integrated faculty-led trips and projects. Through the array of real-world experiences, students are exposed to global business’s impact and evolution.

Career Opportunities

Graduates of the program seek such positions as: new-business manager, instructor, international projects coordinator, fund administrator, and various other roles in global firms.

 Marketable Skills

The mission of the Master of Science in International Management Studies (MS IMS) degree program is to create leaders with practical knowledge in functional areas of international management by focusing on developing global skillset required by current and evolving industry standards. The program is designed to meet the increasing demand for business professionals joining international institutions, multinational corporations and governmental organizations. Upon completion of the program our students will be able to:

- Apply global skillset
- Critically analyze global business challenges and opportunities
- Formulate global business strategic decisions
- Identify the ethical and legal aspects of business operations of companies working in a global market
- Develop strategy to integrate cultural values of diverse individuals into larger international markets

The University of Texas at Dallas Naveen Jindal School of Management (JSOM) is the largest of UT Dallas’ eight schools, with an enrollment of about 9,000 with almost half who are graduate students. The school provides outstanding tuition value, a wide variety of classes on campus and online, flexible scheduling and a convenient location. The Jindal School of Management keeps abreast of business needs as an essential component in providing students with rigorous training and relevant skills for professional success. Programs are offered at the undergraduate, MBA, master’s, PhD and executive levels. Programs are organized around six broad topics of business specialization:

- Accounting
- Finance and Managerial Economics
- Information Systems
- Marketing
- Operations Management
- Organizations, Strategy and International Management

A broad array of internship and scholarship opportunities is made available to Jindal School students each academic year. The school operates its own Career Management Center, which students may use in addition to the campus-wide UT Dallas Career Center. More than 70 student organizations are based in the school. Most of these focus on career development in specific fields and build networking, internship and employment opportunities. U.S. News & World Report (2021) ranks the school’s Full-Time MBA program at No. 33 (tied) in the nation and tied for No. 12 (tied) among public university programs in the United States. In the same ranking, the publication places the Professional (Part-Time) MBA at No. 19 (tied) in the nation. jindal.utdallas.edu
